URGED TO MAKE A FIRM STAND

Californians Wire Mayor Schmitz and the School Board.

WANT JAP COOLIES EXCLUDED

San Francisco Officials Hold a Conference and Agree on a Policy in Connection With the Japanese Question. Same to Be Submitted to President Roosevelt.

Washington, Feb. 11. — The policy they will pursue in connection with the question of the Japanese and the schools has been agreed on by Mayor Schmitz and the members of the San Francisco school board at a conference here.

Mayor Schmitz and the members of the board have refused to make any statement as to what position they will take when they will confer with President Roosevelt and Secretary Root. In a telegram, however, to the California Exclusion league, Mayor Schmitz declares the delegation has "not made any arrangements up to date of any kind." More than 300 telegrams were received by Mayor Schmitz and members of the board urging them to stand firm for the exclusion of the Japanese coolies from the United States.

A telegram received by Mayor Schmitz from the president of the California Exclusion league in part reads: "Papers announce in big headlines that 'Schmitz deserts labor for Japanese; mayor and school board make complete surrender.' We can not and will not believe it. Exclusion League demands exclusion by act of congress. Treaty will not exclude. Sovereign rights must not be bartered away by promises and should not be basis for compromise. We will not yield one iota of our rights as a sovereign people, regardless of cost or consequences."

Mayor Schmitz's reply to this telegram in part follows: "Telegram received. Announcement of papers absolutely false. Have made no arrangement up to date of any kind. Story false like all other statements made about me. I am a Californian trying to do my duty to my state."

At this afternoon's conference the Californians will present their views to President Roosevelt in writing, and a final, definite agreement probably will not be reached until Tuesday. It can be authoritatively stated that the president will assure Mayor Schmitz and the school board that if they will agree to end the agitation by abolishing the oriental schools the president will in turn use his influence to secure a treaty with Japan that will exclude coolie labor from this country.

Exclusion of Japanese.

Tokyo, Feb. 11.—The Jiji in a leading editorial anent the San Francisco incident expresses disbelief in the possibility of the adoption of a new treaty mutually restricting labor immigration as a solution of the public school controversy. The Jiji declares that it is aware that a large number of Japanese are going to San Francisco from Hawaii, and that this immigration is causing jealousy on the part of the white labor, but it contends that this is due to the imperfect provisions of the existing law, which might be remedied by an agreement on the part of both governments, but which should constitute an entirely separate subject of discussion as not concerning the San Francisco dispute, in which latter Japan stands upon her treaty rights.

HUNCER OF HENRY LANDS HIM AGAIN

Jake Henry was arrested Sunday morning by Chief Maple and Officer Courtwright, for robbing the refrigerator of Mrs. Jos. Johnson on South Fourth street. He committed the theft at an early hour and made good his escape for a time. When the articles were missed the police were notified. They came at once, and noticed a track of some one in the snow. The officers folowed the tracks, and at the end found themselves at the home of Jacob Henry. He was not at home, but was found later at the home of Mrs. Kinkade his aunt. He was locked up at once, and Sunday evening confessed the theft. He will undoubtedly be sent to the Columbus work house.

For several weeks past, the residents of the Richie apartments on Mulberry street have missed articles of food from their refrigerators, and it is supposed that Jake was the thief.

Take Pictures of Medley Piling

Prosecutor McDowell, Photographer Brihl and the county commissioners will visit the Newcomerstown bridge Tuesday and a number of views will be taken of the scene, showing the condition of the piling put in by John Medley. The pictures will be for the use of the jury in the case of Medley vs the County Commissioners now pending in common pleas court.

To Undergo Operation.

Merrel B. Smith, assistant cashier of the Coshocton National bank, has left the bank temporarily, and tomorrow will undergo an operation. It is expected he will be able to resume his duties within six weeks.

Robert Baker is taking his place.

PICTURES OF SCENE OF CRIME

Prosecutor McDowell Has Photo of Bordenkircher Residence

Proscutor McDowell, foreseeing packing up of the furniture in the Ida Mae Bordenkircher household on Vine street, had Photographer Riley visit the house shortly after the tragedy and take pictures of the various rooms in the house, including the front room where the post mortem was held over Levi Bordenkircher's body, the kitchen in which Mrs. Bordenkircher stood when she is alleged to have fired the fatal shot, the room next to it in which Levi stood when the ball entered his body, the door through which the bullet passed and other rooms in the house where the tragedy occurred on Christmas day.

These pictures will be exhibited to the jury when the case comes to trial the 13th of March.

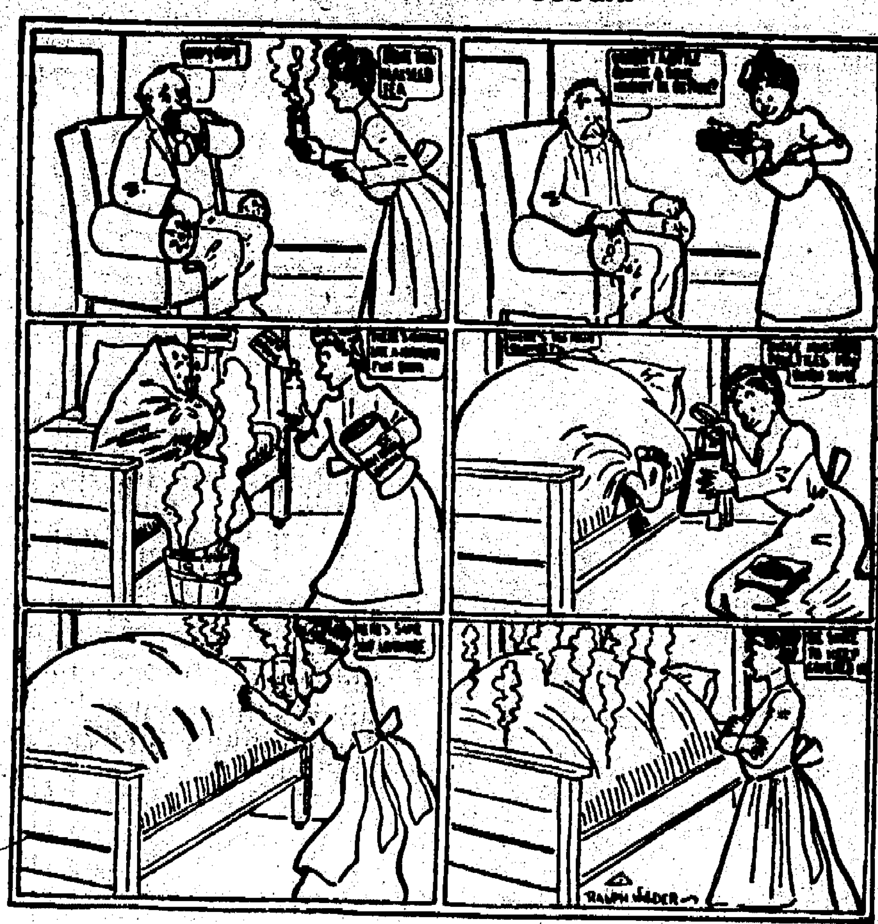

In speaking of the employing of Judge Voorhees to assist in the prosecution of the Bordenkircher case, Mr. McDowell states that this was done owing to the unusually large number of other cases that he will have to take care of and which will be more than enough for one lawyer to take care of. There are fifteen civil cases against the county beside the long list of criminal cases.

NOTED MEN INVITED FOR LABOR DAY

If the plans of the Labor Day committee bear fruition, the coming Labor day will see the biggest celebration Coshocton ever witnessed. At the meeting of the committee Sunday morning, organization was effected by electing E. P. Miller chairman and Sam Carpenter secretary. The other members are: Messrs. James Hart, Chas. Cole, Bradshaw and Harry Hack. They will hold meetings every week until plans are definite.

Invitations were sent to the following noted labor leaders to be present for addresses Labor day:

Frank Morrison, secretary, A. F. L., Washington, D. C.

Frank Duffy, president Carpenters & Joiners, Indianapolis.

D. A. Hayes, president Glass Bottle blowers, Philadelphia.

T. L. Lewis, vice president United Mine Workers, Bridgeport, O.

"We are going to have the biggest and best celebration ever held in this part of the state" said Chairman Miller to The Age.

Tom Lewis To Address Laboring Men Sunday

Tom Lewis, the well known and popular national vice president of the United Mine Workers, will be in Coshocton next Sunday, Feb. 17, to address the open labor meeting at city hall. E. P. Miller received a telegram from him stating that he would be able to accept the committee's invitation. The meeting will be an observance of the anniversary of the incarceration of Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone in Idaho. The labor unions will meet at Labor hall in the Selby building and form in a body and march to the city hall. It promises to be a big meeting. Mr. Lewis is an eloquent speaker, but aside from him Coshocton will have an opportunity to listen to addresses by two of her own gifted sons both of whom stand high in the counsels of the United Mine Workers — State President William Green and State Vice President Dennis H. Sullivan. The capacity of city hall will be taxed.

STINER ARRESTED FOR SANTA CLAUS THEFTS

Lewis Stiner of Pleasant Valley was arrested Sunday by Chief Maple and Officer Courtright for a number of thefts committed Christmas eve. The articles stolen were buggy harness, horse blankets, halters, storm covers, etc., and the people victimized were Sam McCleary, William Cantwell Lloyd Pocock, Fred Beutenmiller and J. F. Albertson. At the time there was no clue to the thief but a few days ago a whip which proved to be the property of Beutenmiller was dropped by Stiner on the Pleasant Valley road and the arrest followed. The rest of the articles were found at his home; he claimed he found them all. A white wool horse blanket which Mr. Albertson used on his matinee race horse was found on Mrs. Stiner's bed.

CLAIMS STAMPS WERE BURNED

Minor Official's Statement to the New York Comptroller.

FIVE MILLIONS IN THE LOT

Official Investigation Into the Disposition of the Old Issue of Tax Stamps Alleged to Have Developed a Conflict of Testimony — Comptroller's Report.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 11.—The results of an inquiry which he has made into the condition of the stock transfer tax bureau of the comptroller's office, with reference to the handling and disposition of seven million dollars' worth of the stamps issued by that department for use in the transfer of stocks under the act of 1905, has been made public by Comptroller Glynn.

According to the comptroller over five million dollars' worth of the stamps have been destroyed, either in process of manufacture or by actual burning, without adequate record or authentication in the two years since the entire business of printing and caring for the stock transfer tax stamps was in the hands of Charles M. Watkins of Penn Yann, chief clerk in the stock transfer bureau, who was superseded early in January by an appointee of Mr. Glynn's, and it was in the process of checking up the stamps on hand that the alleged state of affairs was discovered.

The stamps were printed by Quayle & Son of this city. The plates were in the custody of the comptroller's representative, and each day or week were delivered to Quayle. The paper first used was of an ordinary commercial sort, which Comptroller Glynn said was stored in the Quayle shop under an ordinary lock in an ordinary room, and while the sheets were counted out before printing, there was no safeguard to prevent their being abstracted. Moreover, the comptroller declares the count of sheets does not tally, the explanation being that some of it was used for other purposes. The first issue of stamps was found to be susceptible of counterfeiting and the removal of cancellation marks, and in May or June of last year the printing of these were stopped and a new issue begun on patent paper.

A statement was made to him by Watkins, the comptroller said, adding: "He says that early in October he took all that remained of the old issue of stamps from the vaults down to Quayle's shop in Green street, bound them up, and they remained there ...

ENJOY GOOD EATING

Good Digestion Can be Readily Gained With Mi-o-na Stomach Tablets

It is torment to look upon a tempting dinner and realize that to eat freely means distress and suffering.

Let us tell you how you can enjoy eating, so that the heartiest meals will set well and cause no pain, distress or uncomfortable feeling of fullness.

If you cannot eat and enjoy three good, hearty, satisfying meals a day without any feeling of discomfort, your stomach is weak and needs the strength which Mi-o-na stomach tablets will give it. You cannot afford to delay treatment, for the longer you allow the digestive organs to be weak the harder it will be to get help.

The remarkable curative and strengthening power of Mi-o-no is attested by the guarantee, which C. E. Anderson gives with every 50c box. "I will return the money if Mi-o-na fails to cure."

If you find that eating well-cooked and properly chewed food is followed by heaviness and load on the stomach, by bloatinb, by gulping of acids and wind, by distress, nervousness, headache trouble to sleep or by any other symptoms of disordered or weak stomach, you should begin the use of Mi-o-na at once. It is guaranteed by one of the best known druggists in Coshocton to cure all disorders of the stomach, or cost nothing. A guarantee like this means a good deal.

Found $5 Bill On the Street

Howard Lennon, the genial infirmary superintendent, had his luck right with him when in town Saturday. On Main street he picked up a $5 bill and is still looking for the owner. All his friends tried to prove guilty but he says he is looking for the person who lost it, particularly if they earned it by the sweat of their brow. "I was walking along" he said "and there it lay right under my nose. I want the Indicator to copy that part of the item, too.'"

Dyspepsia is our national ailment. Burdock Blood Bitters, is the national cure for it. It strengthens stomach membranes, promotes flow of digestive juices, purifies the blood, builds you up.

NOBLEST OF WORDS FIRST WAS DERISION

Last night at Grace M E. church Rev. Chas. S. Robertson preached the last sermon before the special services which begign next Sunday and continue four days in preparation for the Rees meetings. Tis text was Acts 11:26: "And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch."

Rev. Robertson spoke of the number of words which were originally epithets of contempt or scorn but which have now come to be exalted and honored among men. Among these words is the word Christian which was first used in a scornful way but now stands for all that is good and great. The most humble follower of the Christian faith is in this day and age looked upon with more respect than those who scoff at Christianity and a nobler and better life is looked for in this humble follower than is expected from the loftiest personage among any other class of people.

Rev. Robertson spoke of the manner in which people become Christians. He sad it is more a matter of will than of desire. No doubt every one at some time has at least in an intellectual way desired to become a Christian. But it is not a matter of wish but of will; it is not desiring but doing. We cannot become perfect Christians at once but we can take the first step; in fact it is doubtful whether any of us ever become perfect Christians.

You'd better paddle your own canoe,
For that's what you'll have to do,

These are Facts!

Most all articles in the grocery line are much higher. This advance came after many had placed orders but not all.

Lucky indeed are the customers of a grocer who had placed future orders as they will get high grade goods at last year's prices, while others must either pay more or get inferior qualities, Especially is this true of Canned Peas and Tomatoes. The Central Grocery Co. have the largest stock of canned Vegetables brought to Coshocton by a retail grocer; and our early purchases will enable us to sell to the trade at a value that is now a wholesale price. Apex Peas 10c or 3 for 25c. A full extra standard Tomato only 10c, good values, this would be 2 for 25c. All the higher grades as well. Our Coffee business increases daily, the reason: We sell only fresh roasted goods; all stunning values 16c, 20c, 25c, 30c and 35c; 4 different grades 20c, but "Central Special" is the leading 20c Coffee of the city. Have you tried it.

PAIN

Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause. Pain is congestion, pain is blood pressure—nothing else usually. At least, so says Dr. Shoop, and to prove it he has created a little pink tablet. That tablet—called Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablet—coaxes blood pressure away from pain centers. Its effect is charming, pleasingly delightful. Gently, though safely, it surely equalizes the blood circulation.

If you have a headache, it's blood pressure.

If it's painful periods with women, same cause.

If you are sleepless, restless, nervous, it's blood congestion—blood pressure. That surely is a certainty, for Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets stop it in 20 minutes, and the tablets simply distribute the unnatural blood pressure.

Bruise your finger, and doesn't it get red, and swell, and pain you? Of course it does. It's congestion, blood pressure. You'll find it where pain is—always. It's simply Common Sense.

The Modesty of Women

Naturally makes them shrink from the indelicate questions, the obnoxious examinations, and unpleasant local treatments, which some physicians consider essential in the treatment of diseases of women. Yet, if help can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than let the disease grow and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all the annoyance and shame for nothing. Thousands of women who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription write in appreciation of the cure which dispenses with the examinations and local treatments. There is no other medicine so sure and safe for delicate women as "Favorite Prescription." It cures debilitating drains, irregularity and female weakness. It always helps. It almost always cures. It is strictly non-alcoholic, non-secret, all its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper; contains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicinal root entering into its composition has the full endorsement of those most eminent in the several schools of medical practice. Some of these numerous and strongest of professional endorsements of its ingredients, will be found in a pamphlet wrapped around the bottle, also in a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of KNOWN COMPOSITION. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. If sick consult the Doctor, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held sacredly confidential.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

TO fully appreciate a great announcement we must have time at our disposal. At the moment of Loder's disclosure time was denied to Eve, for scarcely had the words left his lips before the thought that dominated him asserted its prior claim. Blind to the incredulity in her eyes, he drew her swiftly forward and —half impelling, half supporting her— forced her to descend the stairs.

Never in after life could he obliterate the remembrance of that descent. Fear, such as he could never experience in his own concerns, possessed him. One desire overrode all others, the desire that Eve's reputation, which he himself had so nearly imperiled, should remain unimperiled. In the shadow of that urgent duty, the despair of the past hours, the appalling fact so lately realized, the future, with its possible trials, became dark to his imagination. In his new victory over self the question of her protection predominated.

Moving under his compulsion, he guided her hastily and silently down the deserted stairs, drawing a breath of deep relief as one after another the landings were successively passed, and, still actuated by the suppressed need of haste, he passed through the doorway that they had entered under such different conditions only a few minutes before.

To leave the quiet court, to gain the Strand, to hail a belated hansom, was the work of a moment. By an odd contrivance of circumstance the luck that had attended every phase of his dual life was again exerted in his behalf. No one had noticed their entry into Clifford's inn; no one was moved to curiosity by their exit. With an involuntary thrill of feeling he gave expression to his relief.

"Thank God it's over!" he said as a cab drew up. "You don't know what the strain has been."

Moving as if in a dream, Eve stepped into the cab. As yet the terrible denouement to their enterprise had made no clear impression upon her mind. For the moment all that she was conscious of, all that she instinctively acknowledged, was the fact that Loder was still beside her.

In quiet obedience she took her place, drawing aside her skirts to make room for him, and in the same subdued manner he stepped into the vehicle. Then, with the strange sensation of reliving their earlier drive, they were aware of the tightened rein and of the horse's first forward movement.

For several seconds neither spoke. Eve, shutting out all other thoughts, sat close to Loder, clinging tenaciously to the momentary comforting sense of protection. Loder, striving to marshal his ideas, hesitated before the ordeal of speech. At last, realizing his responsibility, he turned to her slowly.

"Eve," he said in a low voice and with some hestiation, "I want you to know that in all this—from the moment I saw him—from the moment I understood—I have had you in my thoughts—you and no one else."

She raised her eyes to his face.

"Do you realize"— he began afresh. "Do you know what this—this thing means?"

Still she remained silent.

"It means that after tonight there will be no such person in London as John Loder. Tomorrow the man who was known by that name will be found in his rooms; his body will be removed, and at the post mortem examination it will be stated that he died of an overdose of morphia. His charwoman will identify him as a solitary man who lived respectably for years and then suddenly went down hill with remarkable speed. It will be quite a common case. Nothing of interest will be found in his rooms. No relation will claim his body. After the usual time he will be given the usual burial of his class. These details are horrible, but there are times when we must look at the horrible side of life, because life is incomplete without it.

"These things I speak of are the things that will meet the casual eye, but in our sight they will have a very different meaning."

"Eve," he said, more vehemently, "a whole chapter in my life has been closed tonight, and my first instinct is to shut the book and throw it away. But I'm thinking of you. Remember, I'm thinking of you. Whatever the trial, whatever the difficulty, no harm shall come to you. You have my word for that.

"I'll return with you now to Grosvenor square. I'll remain there till a reasonable excuse can be given for Chilcote's going abroad. I will avoid Fraide. I will cut politics—whatever the cost. Then at the first reasonable moment I will do what I would do now, tonight, if it were possible. I'll go away, start afresh; do in another country what I have done in this."

There was a long silence; then Eve turned to him. The apathy of a moment before had left her face. "In [illegible] [illegible]," she repeated. "In another [illegible] there are times when age—and things like age—are not the real consideration. It seems to me that your own inclination, your own individual sense of right and wrong, has nothing to do with the present moment. The question is whether you are justified in going away"—she paused, her eyes fixed steadily upon his—"whether you are free to go away and make a new life, whether it is ever justifiable to follow a phantom light when—when there's a lantern waiting to be carried." Her breath caught. She drew away from him, frightened and elated by her own words.

Loder turned to her sharply. "Eve!" he exclaimed; then his tone changed. "You don't know what you're saying," he added quickly. "You don't understand what you're saying."

Eve leaned forward again. "Yes," she said slowly. "I do understand." Her voice was controlled, her manner convinced. She was no longer the girl conquered by strength greater than her own. She was the woman strenuously demanding her right to individual happiness.

"I understand it all," she repeated. "I understand every point. It was not chance that made you change your identity, that made you care for me, that brought about—his death. I don't believe it was chance. I believe it was something much higher. You are not meant to go away."

As Loder watched her the remembrance of his first days as Chilcote rose again, the remembrance of how he had been dimly filled with the belief that below her self possession lay a strength—a depth—uncommon in woman. As he studied her now the instinctive belief flamed into conviction. "Eve!" he said involuntarily.

With a quick gesture she raised her head. "No!" she exclaimed. "No; don't say anything. You are going to see things as I see them—you must do so—you have no choice. No real man ever casts away the substance for the shadow." Her eyes shone—the color, the glow, the vitality, rushed back into her face.

"John," she said softly, "I love you, and I need you, but there is something with a greater claim—a greater need than mine. Don't you know what it is?"

He said nothing. He made no gesture.

"It is the party—the country. You may put love aside, but duty is different. You have pledged yourself. You are not meant to draw back."

Loder's lips parted.

"Don't," she said again. "Don't say anything. I know all that is in your mind. But when we sift things right through it isn't my love—or our happiness—that's really in the balance. It is your future." Her voice thrilled. "You are going to be a great man, and a great man is the property of his country. He has no right to individual action."

Again Loder made an effort to speak, but again she checked him.

"Wait!" she exclaimed. "Wait! You believe you have acted wrongly, and you are desperately afraid of acting wrongly again. But is it really truer, more loyal for us to work out a long probation in grooves that are already overfilled than to marry quietly abroad and fill the places that have need of us? That is the question I want you to answer. Is it really truer and nobler? Oh, I see the doubt that is in your mind! You think it finer to go away and make a new life than to live the life that is waiting you—because one is independent and the other means the use of another man's name and another man's money—that is the thought in your mind. But what is it that prompts that thought?" Again her voice caught, but her eyes did not falter. "I will tell you. It is not self sacrifice, but pride." She said the word fearlessly.

A flush crossed Loder's face. "A man requires pride," he said in a low voice.

"Yes, at the right time. But is this the right time? Is it ever right to throw away the substance for the shadow? You say that I don't understand—don't realize. I realize more tonight than I have realized in all my life. I know what might be at it [illegible] she paused. Loder, his hands resting on the closed doors of the cab, sat very silent, with averted eyes and bent head.

"Only tonight," she went on, "you told me that everything was crying to you to take the easy, pleasant way. Then it was strong to turn aside, but now it is not strong. It is far nobler to fill an empty niche than to carve one for yourself. John"—she suddenly leaned forward, laying her hands over his—"Mr. Fraide told me tonight that in his new ministry my—my husband was to be undersecretary for foreign affairs."

The words fell softly, so softly that to ears less comprehending than Loder's their significance might have been lost, as his rigid attitude and unresponsive manner might have conveyed lack of understanding to any eyes less observant than Eve's.

For a long space there was no word spoken. At last, with a very gentle pressure, her fingers tightened over his hands.

"John," she began gently, but the word died away. She drew back into her seat as the cab stopped before Chilcote's house.

Simultaneously as they descended the hall door was opened and a flood of warm light poured out reassuringly into the darkness.

"I thought it was your cab, sir," Crapham exclaimed deferentially as they passed into the hall. "Mr. Fraide has been waiting to see you this half hour. I showed him into the study." He closed the door softly and retired.

Then in the warm light, amid the gravely dignified surroundings that had marked his first entry into this hazardous second existence, Eve turned to Loder for the verdict upon which the future hung.

As she turned his face was still hidden from her, and his attitude betrayed nothing.

"John," she said slowly, "you know why he is here. You know that he has come to personally offer you this place, to personally receive your refusal—or consent."

She ceased to speak, there was a moment of suspense, then Loder turned. His face was still pale and grave with the gravity of a man who has but recently been close to death, but beneath the gravity was another look, the old expression of strength and self reliance, tempered, raised and dignified by a new humility.

Moving forward, he held out his hands.

"My consent or refusal," he said very quietly, "lies with—my wife."

THE END.

NAMES OF JURORS IN BIG TRIAL

The special venire of twelve extra jurors to make a sufficiently large list from which a jury may be chosen to try Ida Mae Bordenkircher on the charge of murder on March 13 was drawn Saturday afternoon, as announced in The Age. It was deemed advisable, as the challenge privilege will probably be exercised very carefully by the attorneys on both sides. There are five men in the list of 20 jurors previously drawn who reside in Coshocton. They are S. A. Pfous, L. B. Barcroft, T. J. Hanley, John Lorenz and Thos. H. Burrell. It was stated to the judge that none of these five should be eligible to sit in the Bordenkircher case. Judge R. M. Voorhees, who will assist in the prosecution of the case, asked that a special venire be drawn in order that there would be sure to be enough. The twelve names drawn from the wheel Saturday were:

J. M. McCollum, Oxford township.
John E. Hays, Tiverton township.
Thomas Hamilton, White Eyes township
David Zimmerman, Adams township
John McFarland, New Castle township.
George Miller, Washington township.
Robert J. Graham, Clark township
Jesse Riggle, Adams township
Charles Schumaker, Crawford township
John B. Bassett, Linton township

THE GRANGE

Conducted by
J. W. DARROW, Chatham, N. Y.,
Press Correspondent New York State Grange

A POMONA ADDRESS.

Some Pleasantly Radical Views on Various Subjects Expressed.

The custom was inaugurated some years ago in the Columbia county (N. Y.) Pomona of having an annual address by the master covering the work of the year briefly and making suggestions for advancing the work in the year to come. At the Columbia county Pomona meeting in January the master, Edward Van Alstyne of Kinderhook, gave a most admirable address, from which a few extracts appeared in the Country Gentleman. Speaking of the organization of new granges, he said he believed it to be a mistake to plant them where the field is practically crowded with them already. He had had opportunity to observe the usefulness of the Order over a wide field and too often had found granges that had a name to live, but were dead. The cause most times was an untimely start or placed where the support was insufficient. On increasing membership he said we should not go out into the byways and hedges, as it were, and compel people to come in who have little sympathy with the purposes of the Order or with agriculture. Such are likely to be a burden or an element of discord.

Mr. Van Alstyne believed it to be a serious mistake to depart from the principles of our Order and take in as members those not directly interested in agriculture, however estimable people they may be in other respects. We should also avoid, said he, that class of membership that has only an eye for the "loaves and fishes." The one who comes into the Order only that he may be able to insure his buildings at a less cost or buy a horse blanket or a bushel of clover seed 25 cents cheaper is worth only his initiation fee and annual dues to the Order. The hope of our agriculture is in our youth. They should be in our granges. Let them dance at the proper time if they wish to, and better that they do it under the restraining, refining influence of the grange than to be forced to go outside to places perhaps they ought not to go. And let them fill some of the offices occasionally. It will increase their interest and train them for future service. He recommends the organization of juvenile granges wherever practicable. He advises a meeting of the subordinate lecturers under the direction of the county lecturer to discuss the programmes and literary work in general. He closed with a strong word of counsel to send only representative men and women as delegates to the state grange and suggested that prior to the meeting of the Pomona for electing delegates each grange in the county be requested to send to the secretary of the Pomona the names of one man and one woman and that the delegates be selected from the persons so nominated.

JUVENILE GRANGES.

May Be Successful Under Good Management.

There are doubtless two opinions as to the practical value of juvenile granges, says an exchange, and not all have been successful that have been organized. Success depends very largely on the person who is appointed to have charge of the juveniles. Not only must they be started right, but they must be kept right under the wise direction of a faithful matron. There is no reason why they should fail. This is true of the juvenile work. It does fit the young people for intelligent and helpful membership in the subordinate grange, it gives them something to do which will broaden their interests, it trains them in the conduct of public meetings and in parliamentary usage, and socially it may be made instructive as well as enjoyable. Times and places for meetings, whether at the same time as the subordinate grange in an adjoining room or at some other place and time, are matters that give considerable trouble. If such problems can be satisfactorily solved, one serious objection to the young people's organization is overcome. At any rate, the subject is worthy of careful consideration.

The Annual Meetings.

Nearly all state granges held their annual meetings in December, and from one end of the country to the other comes the universal report of growing interest in the work and increased membership and larger opportunities for working out the various problems that confront the farmer. The grange was never so strong, so active and so influential as at the present moment. So long as it keeps its skirts clear of all political entanglements its future is secure.

New York's County Deputies.

Early in March next the county deputies of New York state will convene at Syracuse for a conference. Much good is anticipated for the Order in the Empire State from this convention of men who are the organizers and guardians of the work in their respective districts.

Is What Liquozone Cost Us. A Test Costs You Nothing at All.

There is a gas-made product which does, in some conditions, what nothing else can do. A product known the world over, for millions have used it. And countless people everywhere owe much to this invention.

We ask you to try this product, at our expense. Be fair to yourself; learn how much it means to you. Even though it fails you have lost nothing. If it does what it does for others, you are well. And do you suppose we would make this offer if the results were not bound to surprise you?

What Liquozone Is.

Liquozone is a tonic-germicide, the virtues of which are derived solely from oxide gases. No alcohol, no narcotic, nothing but gas enters into it. The process of making requires large apparatus, and consumes 14 days' time. The object is to so combine the gases with a liquid as to carry their virtues into the system.

The result is a germicide so certain that we publish with every bottle an offer of $1,000 for a disease germ that Liquozone cannot kill. It destroys them because germs are of vegetable origin. But to the body Liquozone is exhilarating, vitalizing, purifying.

That is its main distinction. Common germicides are poisons when taken internally. They are impossible, for they destroy the tissues as well as the germs. That is why medicine proves so helpless in dealing with germ diseases. Liquozone, on the contrary, acts as a remarkable tonic.

We Paid $100,000.

For the rights to Liquozone, after thousands of tests had been made with it, after its power had been demonstrated for more than two years in the most difficult germ diseases. Conditions which had resisted medicine for years yielded at once to it, and diseases considered incurable were cured.

That was five years ago. Since then millions of people in every part of the world have shared in the benefits of this invention. Nearly every hamlet, every neighborhood, has living examples of its power. Now we ask you to let it do for you what it did for them.

Germ Diseases.

Most of our sickness has, in late years, been traced to germ attacks. Some germs—as in skin troubles—directly attack the tissues. Some create toxins, causing such troubles as Rheumatism, Blood Poison, Kidney Disease and nerve weakness. Some destroy vital organs, as in Consumption. Some—like the germs of Catarrh—create inflammation; some cause indigestion. In one of these ways, nearly every serious ailment is a germ result.

Such conditions call for a germicide, not for common drugs. Liquozone does what other means cannot accomplish. And it is wrong to cling to old ways when millions of people know a way that is better.

50c Bottle Free.

If you wish to know what Liquozone does please send us this coupon. We will then mail you an order on a local druggist for a full-size bottle, and will pay the druggist ourselves for it. This is our free gift, made to convince you; to let the product itself show you what it can do. In justice to yourself, please accept it to-day, for it places you under no obligations whatever.

FIRE BROKE OUT JUST AT CHURCH TIME

Fire broke out in the residence of Dr. H. R. McCurdy Sunday morning just beore the church hour, but was extinguished with minimum loss. It was caused by the floor under the gas range in the kitchen catching fire and communicating with the rear wall of the house. The department responded but Fred Swigert and Dr. McLaughlin, who were early on the scene, mounted the roof of a summer kitchen and with the garden hose did effective work. The loss will amount to probably $250.

MOTHERHOOD

The first requisite of a good mother is good health, and the experience of maternity should not be approached without careful physical preparation, as a woman who is in good physical condition transmits to her children the blessings of a good constitution.

Preparation for healthy maternity is accomplished by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made from native roots and herbs, more successfully than by any other medicine because it gives tone and strength to the entire feminine organism, curing displacements, ulceration and inflammation, and the result is less suffering and more children healthy at birth. For more than thirty years has been the standby of American mothers in preparing for childbirth.

MRS. JAMES CHESTER

Note what Mrs James Chester of 427 W. 35th St., New York says in this letter:—Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—"I wish every expectant mother knew about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. A neighbor who had learned of its great value at this trying period of a woman's life urged me to try it and I did so, and I cannot say enough in regard to the good it did me. I recovered quickly and am in the best of health now."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is certainly a successful remedy for the peculiar weaknesses and ailments of women.

It has cured almost every form of Female Complaints, Dragging Sensations, Weak Back, Falling and Displacements, Inflammation, Ulcerations and Organic Diseases of Women and is invaluable in preparing for Childbirth and during the Change of Life.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to write Mrs Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free.

Demand of Telegraphers.

Chicago, Feb. 11.—The discharge of four telegraphers employed by the Western Union Telegraph company and ignoring of a petition for wage adjustment signed by 700 employes were presented at a mass meeting held under the auspices of the Commercial Telegraphers' union. Resolutions were adopted giving the necessary authority to the local executive board to handle the matter, and if necessary call a special meeting of Commercial Telegraphers' Union No. 1.

Fishermen Destitute.

Naples, Feb. 11.—The government has sent troops and assistance to Marina Di Catanzaro, the fishing village on the Calabrian coast, where a tidal wave destroyed 122 houses and rendered the population homeless and destitute. The conditions there are made more severe because of incessant rains. The storm also did serious damage in the province of Cosenza, numerous villages being flooded.

Switchmen Walk Out.

New Orleans, Feb. 11.—A strike was begun by local Louisville & Nashville railroad switchmen, their demands being for $3 per day and 10 hours' work. Although but 24 switchmen are involved in the strike, the situation is aggravated by extra heavy traffic of the Mardi Gras season.

Strike Settled.

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 11.—The strike of machinists in the shops of the Mexican Central railway at Nuevo Ladero, Mexico, which has been on for several months, as well as the strike of cotton mill workers at Queretaro, have been settled. In the former case all the demands of the workmen were granted except recognition of the union. In the latter the strikers surrendered unconditionally.

The Home Study Circle

The Home Study Circle was entertained Friday evening by Mrs. Herbert McDonald at her pretty home on Walnut street. Current events were given in response to roll call and in addition to them Miss Alice Judd read a very clever original poem in which she described her many efforts to write along different lines but was always urd back to her natural talents by the chaotic state of her muse. The paper of the evening was presented by Mrs Gault the subject being "The Trend of the Poetry of Today." In her opening words she said that to appreciate poetry it must be in the realm of one's thought and that the trend of the present day is to write more briefly and more simply. A number of selections were read, to illustrate her statements one of them being 'The Emigrant's Lament," which was written by Theodosia Garrison and tells of a young Irish woman who had everything in this new world that could make her happiness but pined for the sight of her mother back in Ireland Mrs. Gault spoke too of William Vaugn Moody whose play "The Great Divide" is being much commented upon and who is recognized as one of the masters of English today and of Joachim Mille whose short, vivid description of the San Francisco earth quake prove his great genius Other people who write in lighter vein were mentioned and after the discussion which followed the paper Mrs McDonald assisted by her little daughter Estella and Norma Heunell served refreshments.

Mrs McDonald's guest Miss Powell of Nelsonville as well as Mrs Kreber attended the meeting. The next one will be held in two weeks at the library.

"Salome."

Most Vivid and Grewsome Operatic Sensation Ever Known In the United States.

Striking Features of the Strauss-Wilde "Music Drama," Retired From the Metropolitan Opera House After One Production—Perversion of a Dramatic Bible Story Pronounced as an Unspeakable Exhibition of Degeneracy.

By ROBERTUS LOVE.

UNQUESTIONABLY the most vivid and vital opera sensation ever known in the United States is now raging in New York and rapidly spreading to the rest of operatic America. The sensation is "Salome"—the unnamed Salome of the Bible, the Salome of Richard Strauss' music, the Salome of Oscar Wilde's play.

And the worst of these is the Wilde Salome.

After one production at the Metropolitan Opera House the Strauss-Wilde "music drama" has been retired, so far as that institution is concerned But it was not prohibited by the police authorities nor was its sudden suspension due to public protest. Most remarkably, "Salome" got its quietus through a pen stroke from the secretary of the opera house directors, half a dozen millionaires who are the principal owners of the property. These men, headed by J. Pierpont Morgan, instructed their secretary to notify Herr Conried, director of the opera house, that "Salome" was objectionable and detrimental to the best interests of the house. "We therefore protest against any repetition of this opera," was the ultimatum.

And it is said that Miss Anne T. Morgan, daughter of the famous financier, induced her father to lead the fight against the opera.

Being under contract with Strauss, the composer, Herr Conried may produce the opera at some other New York house and in several other American cities, but it appears that so far as the Metropolitan is concerned "Salome" is taboo.

Practically all the New York newspapers pronounced the opera an unspeakable exhibition of degeneracy. Private citizens likewise excoriated it in the press But the fact that these rich opera house owners set their ban against the production, though the first night's receipts were above $20,000, is highly significant Nothing like that ever before happened in this country.

To quote a familiar advertising line, "there's a reason." No matter what may be one's individual attitude in regard to art in poetry and music, "Salome" as played and sung by Herr Conried's artists is inevitably offensive and shocking to the average person. It is calculated to offend conventional senses of propriety, whether one be religious in the orthodox meaning or not. And for one who reverences the Bible and biblical characters "Salome" is an affront to the very soul of sanctity.

Oscar Wilde wrote the words of this play. He wrote it in French as a one act drama. It was translated into English by Lord Alfred Douglas, bosom friend of Wilde. Sarah Bernhardt was prohibited from playing it in England by the operation of a law in that country against the production of plays containing scenes from the Bible.

Perversion of Bible Scenes.

But, strictly speaking, "Salome" as conceived by Wilde is not really a portrayal of Bible scenes. It is a perversion of them. Most of the action and all of what some persons call the motif sprang from the brain of Oscar Wilde. In the New Testament he found a dramatic story, horrible enough there, inasmuch as it told of the beheading of John the Baptist by Herod at the instigation of Herod's wife, Herodias. Wilde heaped horror upon horror. He perverted altogether the Bible story, reading into it meanings which no man of ordinary human impulses could imagine. Here is the story as told in the fourteenth chapter of Matthew:

"For Herod had laid hold on John and bound him and put him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife.

"For John said unto him, It is not lawful for thee to have her.

"And when he would have put him to death he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet.

"But when Herod's birthday was kept the daughter of Herodias danced before them, which pleased Herod.

"Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatsoever she would ask.

"And she, being before instructed of her mother, said, Give me here John Baptist's head in a charger.

"And the king was sorry. Nevertheless for the oath's sake and them which sat with him at meat he commanded it be given her.

"And he sent and beheaded John in the prison.

"And his head was brought in a charger and given to the damsel, and she brought it to her mother."

Best of All Herods.

In the sixth chapter of Mark the story is told with a little more detail. The name of Salome is not mentioned at all. For that we must turn to secular history. We find that Salome was the daughter of Philip and Herodias. Philip was the half brother of Herod Antipas, the Herod named in the passage quoted. This Herod unlawfully married his brother's wife, who deserted Philip for him. Salome became the wife of her half uncle, also named Philip, a half brother of her father Philip. This second Philip was said to be the decentest of the whole tribe of Herods. He did some respectable things, which cannot be said for the rest of them, who were in very truth a miserable lot of human beasts. Salome's husband died in the year 34 A. D., at Bethsaida, which place he had made into a city. So far as history records, Salome was a decent, well disposed woman as things went in those days.

Now, what does Oscar Wilde make of Salome? Verily the most hideously depraved female wretch in the chronicles of fact or fiction, a physical and moral degenerate of the lowest type, a revolting and disgusting woman.

Dramatists are not supposed to stick to bible fact even when writing historical plays. Nobody expects them not speak further.

The dramatist makes Salome herself responsible for the beheading of John the Baptist rather than her mother, who brought about the prophet's death by way of revenge for his opposition to her unholy alliance with Herod. He makes Herod in love with Salome and Salome in love with John the Baptist. Some of Wilde's perversions of the Biblical tale are based upon the maunderings of previous dramatists and romanticists. But the worst of them are out of his own mind. They are simply Wildesque.

Forerunner of Christ.

In the play as produced at the Metropolitan Opera House, then, we have Salome demanding of Herod the head of John the Baptist, the man who prophesied the coming of the Messiah She demands it because she has made love to him and he has repulsed her John the Baptist was one of the most important characters in the Bible. He was the forerunner of Christ. More than that, he was a second cousin of Christ.

Yet here we have in the closing scene, as Mme. Olive Fremstad plays the role, Salome receiving the severed and bleeding head of this sacred prophet, fondling it, kissing its lips and thus making a scene which caused many women in the audience to retire to the cloakrooms in disgust. Horribly realistic, a papier mache head is handed to the singer and actress and is displayed for about twenty minutes.

This is the supreme affront of the opera "Salome" to Christian people, following, as it does, the notorious "Dance of the Seven Veils" and the further exhibitions of degeneracy throughout the play. If you saw the oriental dances introduced into America by Gaston Akoun fourteen years ago on the Midway plaisance at the Chicago World's fair you saw something like the dance in "Salome" Mme. Fremstad did not perform this dance. It would have been physically impossible for her to have done it and the singing. Mme. Bianca Froelich, a clever dancer, was cleverly substituted for that strenuous performance. This is what Mme. Froelich herself says of the dance:

"It is symbolic and eastern. It is nothing but a danse du ventre. As given in Europe it was ten times as sensational as it is here."

The danse du ventre, it will be remembered, was popularly called the "hootchie cootchie" at Chicago. Protest against it has stirred the public in connection with every American exposition since the one at Chicago.

A Candid Opinion.

Mme. Fremstad, who sings the part of Salome, talks candidly about it.

"We all realize that the theme is revolting," she says. "Certainly it is not 'Parsifal.' But I am concerned in the art of it. Even in the opera Salome is the worst sort of degenerate, but Strauss makes something more of her at the last, where she gets her idea of what love means. Her instinct toward good comes into play when she sees the head before her. Her feeling is partly passionate and partly ideal."

This view of the character may go for what it is worth. Opera artists have viewpoints quite removed from those of the average individual.

According to Herr Conried, the production of "Salome" is a great artistic achievement. The world of music, it is said, holds this to be perhaps the most important music drama since Wagner. It has been produced in many of the European cities, notably at the royal opera houses of Berlin and Dresden, and at Milan and Turin, and is now in rehearsal at Vienna and Paris.

Carl Burrian, who sings the role of Herod, says: "In Germany there is no feeling about it. Young girls go to this opera and enjoy it. It was played there quite as realistically as in America. Let them shorten the disagreeable part and make the scene with the head less repulsive. Fit it to people's ideas. I think the directors should take the middle ground. Simply make it less repulsive. It should be softened."

So here we have views of the leading singers and actors themselves, each of whom out of his own mouth condemns the piece according to the American notion of propriety.

One more statement from the projectors of this operatic sensation may be quoted. Says the business manager of the opera house, "The only religious personage in the work, John the Baptist, is treated with the utmost dignity and reverence."

This looks to be quite the most remarkable view of them all.

Musical World Divided in Its View.

The Strauss music is in itself a sensation. The musical world is divided as to its value. Some hold that if this sort of thing prevails and goes under the name of music, then the splendid art of music is doomed. Others proclaim the Strauss "Salome" a magnificent triumph, a revolution in the forward development of music. As a matter of fact, the general public must take it for granted either way.

Bill Nye once said of Wagner's music, "It is really better than it sounds." This is the only loophole of escape for Strauss, in the opinion of many who have heard his "Salome." No one denies, however, that the composer has interpreted with most amazing and audacious fidelity the meanings of Oscar Wilde, word for word. If idea or suggestion can be translated into music, Richard Strauss has done it. Some persons who know music when they hear it are loud in declaring that the Strauss score is equally degenerate with the Wilde book.

As there are no words in any language to express [illegible] made—like the sounds they produce—had to be invented for this production.

Miss Julia Marlowe and E. H. Sothern have in their repertoire a drama called "John the Baptist," in which the Salome as played and danced by Miss Marlowe is by no means so degenerate as the character in the opera Nevertheless, the play does not seem to please New York. It is more than probable that the western world of the twentieth century is not yet ready for the dramatic presentation of a sacred theme particularly when it is perverted to the putridity of the degenerate Art is not art when it becomes unnaturally indecent.

In fact, there appears to be little likelihood now that "Salome" will be permitted anywhere in the United States.

THE COFFEE MASQUERADE

Advice of the largest coffee dealers in the world is always to buy the old-fashioned Arbuckles' ARIOSA Coffee in the sealed packages. Don't ask for a pound of Mocha and Java, or buy by the price, for Coffee fluctuates and you cannot get the same coffee for the same price all the time unless you pay too much for it. Most of the so-called Mocha and Java Coffee is simply masquerading, and is not nearly as good coffee for you as Arbuckles' ARIOSA, the blend of the Brazilian Coffees most suitable to the taste and health of American people. By the looks there is no difference between roasted Java and Brazilian Coffees; many people drink Brazilian but pay for Java. The principal difference is that Arbuckles' costs you less. It is a mistake to believe that a high price guarantees quality. When you buy Arbuckles' ARIOSA Coffee, you get a full one pound package of the leading Coffee of the world. Its sales for 37 years are greater than the combined sales of all the other packaged coffees. By giving better Coffee for the money, we have built up a business exceeding the combined businesses of the four next largest coffee firms in the whole world. If your dealer will not supply the genuine, write to ARBUCKLE BROS., New York City

CHANCES IN R.F.D. ROUTES ARE POPULAR

The change of the Coshocton and West Lafayette rural routes is causing considerable discussion over the affected territory. Uncle Sam has done a great favor to the rural population by giving them daily free delivery and they are almost unanimous in their appreciation. Any change in the rural routes necessarily causes a certain amount of uneasiness of the patrons for fear they will not be as well served as before the change

As one lady, who had not seen an account of the change of the West Lafayette route and thought she was to be left out said, "We can't get along without a daily mail We have become so accustomed to having it brought to our home each day that we would be lost without it" She was assured that she would be served as before the change. Then she said, "Publish all about it in your paper."

But the change is meeting with approval almost every where. It was thought by taking off the Plainfield Star route much dissatisfaction would be caused, especially by the residents of Plainfield. But the opposite of this is true. By the change Plainfield will get mail before noon whereas through the Star route the mail did not arrive till early in the evening This will be a great advantage especially in getting daily papers.

GUARANTEED REMEDY FOR INDIGESTION

Interesting Statement by C. E. Anderson

When a man comes into this store and calls for any particular indigestion remedy, we always give him what he asks for, but in case he leaves it to us we usually recommend Pepsikola tablets.

Here is a prepartion we have been selling right over the counter for years, so from actual observation we know it must do good, and really does relieve and cure indigestion and dyspepsia or there would be a steady stream of people coming back for their money, as every 25 cent box is sold with the understanding that you must be decidedly benefited or there is nothing to pay.

You simply try Pepsikola tablets with the understanding that they will steady your nerves, improve your digestion, relieve [illegible]

SEBRING VOTED A FRANCHISE IN LEAGUE

Seven cities were represented at the meeting of the Eastern Ohio League held at Dennison Sunday at the Hotel Bovey. Voting Sebring a franchise was the most important business that was transacted, Mr. John Hotskiss who represented Sebring, was appointed a committee of one to see Doc Gove of Alliance and both to visit Massillon and induce that city to enter the league. A meeting was called at Massillon for the managers of the Salem, Alliance, Sebring and Massillon teams, for next Sunday at which time it is expected Massillon will enter the league. President Carr will address the Massillon meeting. Should Massillon enter the league, it is likely that one of the teams on the southern division will be dropped, and a very compact eight club league will be the result.

The representatives at the meeting Sunday were
Dresden, L. E. Kelly
Newark, President Carr
Coshocton, R. B. Caldwell
Dennison, C. L. Speck
Steubenville, John Dickson
Salem, Ambler Smith
Sebring, John Hotskiss
Alliance was represented by a letter which President Carr had received from Doc Gove, and it was very favorable to their city joining the league

The meeting was called to order promptly at one o'clock by President Harvey Carr, who reported the business of the first meeting to the Sebring delegate, who was not present at that time. The reports from the different towns represented were called for, and Mr. Caldwell of Coshocton, reported what had been done in the city. John Dickson of Steubenville said that the financiers back of his club did not expect to make any money out of it, but were in it for the sport

President Carr is in favor of a small league which will finish the season, than to have a larger one with long jumps, and break up about the fourth of July.

Charles Speck of Dennison said that the directors of the P. H. A. C team had held a meeting, and promised to back the team to what ever extent was needed. They will solicit no funds from the city. They will stand pat on last season's team, which Coshocton fans remember as being a fast bunch.

Lawrence Kelly of Dresden said that they could play Sunday base ball there. They have secured a good ground near the sheet mill and will build a grand stand, and put the diamond in shape They have raised $300 already on the same plan Coshocton is using, selling stock at $10 per share.

Mr. Kelly said that Dresden will finish the league with the other teams in the league.

President Carr reported his visit to Dresden and said he thought that city a very good proposition for the league.

John Hotskiss of Sebring said that their city could not join the league, unless Salem remained, and Alliance joined. He says they are both good towns and if they are in everything will be satisfactory to Sebring He was in favor of the guarantees and forfeits as explained by President Carr, but hesitated upon the schedule. His team is composed of nearly all pottery workers, who cannot get away from their work They will have a vacation in July, and will probably play most of their dates in the southern section at that time.

Mr. Hotskiss also reported a conversation with Doc Gove of Alliance. He said they would probably be in, and that the matter was in the hands of a committee of which Mayor McConnell and the cashier of the National bank of Sebring were members

President Carr reported for Newark and stated that Mr Hayes, who is one of the principal stockholders in Newark's O. & P. team, did not want Newark in the E. O. League. His only reason was that it would buck the O. & P. league Mr. Carr has reliable information that the King Co. baseball club which will represent Newark in the E. O. league, has drawn better crowds than the O. & P. team. They have leased the Idlewilde Park and will play Sunday base ball. Their Sunday games will probably be played in the morning thus allowing a second Sunday game to be played probably in Dresden in Salem can play at Massillon, Newark or Dresden, on Sunday.

Ambler Smith reported everything is ship shape in Salem and ready to begin play at any time. He proposed that his team play twilight games on Monday night in Coshocton, when they play a Sunday game at Dresden or Newark. He said games were never called before 4:30 o'clock.

The schedule will be made by the different managers to satisfy each town represented and will not be formed until the P. O M and O. & P. schedules are out, as they will have to conflict with these teams in Newark and Steubenville.

In case Massillon cannot be induced to enter, Canal Dover or Cambridge will be the eighth town in the league

President Carr urged the managers to keep in close touch with the secretary, and also the newspapers which will help to push the league along. No date for the next meeting was set and they adjourned to meet at the call of the president.

THAW TRIAL

Mrs. Thaw.

The possibility that Thaw might get beyond control and make a sensational scene in the courtroom is worrying his legal advisers. Thaw was greatly disturbed after his wife had lifted the veil from her face on Thursday, and is said to have put his foot down hard on any more of her life secrets being told in court, either through questions asked by his counsel or by the district attorney. He told his advisers Saturday that he would rather have gone to the electric chair than to have heard and seen his wife tell of her ruin.

The strain of the past few days has told severely on Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, and it is stated that the prisoner had come to her rescue and demanded a respite for his wife. Upon her visit to the Tombs Mrs. Thaw told her husband that she had suffered greatly during the ordeal when her associations with White were laid bare, and Thaw communicated the fact to the attorneys He told them that his wife was in bad shape and requested that she be given an opportunity to recover herself.

Another development that startled those directly concerned in the case was the reported illness of a juror. Visions of a mistrial were soon dispelled, however, for it was ascertained that the illness of the juror was not such as threatened to incapacitate him. Wilbur F. Steele, 60, has contracted a severe cold.

Attorney Delmas of the defense will attempt to get in evidence Harry Thaw's will, which was ruled out on Friday because the many interlineations in "this somewhat cumbersome document," as Mr. Jerome referred to it, had not been sufficiently proved. This will consists of about 60 pages, some closely typewritten and others in the large handwriting of the defendant. Justice Fitzgerald held that the will must be shown to have been in its present condition when it was signed. Mr. Delmas is very anxious to have this will go in evidence, believing it will go further than any other documentary proof he can produce to show the effect of Evelyn Nesbit's story of her treatment at the hands of Stanford White had upon the mind of the defendant. It leaked out that one of the provisions in Harry Thaw's will is the setting aside of a sum of $50,000 for the prosecution of all persons who may be concerned in case of the death of the testator by violence. The probable instigator of the anticipated act of violence is said to be revealed in the provision. Another paragraph in the will, it is reported, made provision for a fund for the benefit of young women who, the will declared, suffered treatment at the hands of the dead man similar to that of his wife's.

Coshocton 2 Uhrichsville 1.

The polo game with Uhrichsville Saturday night was a very close contest but the locals did not play their usually fast game. However, they won the contest when just 10 seconds remained to play. The score 2 to 1. Barker played center for Pope and Krim played second rush. Krim, who does not have much time to practice played an excellent game While his drives were not all true, he displayed wonderful ability which with win the game, and played like demons during the last period. No goals were scored until just 50 seconds remained to play and Thompson drove goal for Coshocton winning the game.

Advance Showing Spring Wash Fabrics

During this week, we give over half of our main floor to the display of the new white goods, embroideries and dress ginghams. Its time to start on Spring Sewing, you know, if you expect to have finished when the real spring days come.

NEW PRINTED MADRAS

These fabrics combine utility and beauty. For shirt-waists for early spring and for men's shirts, they are unexcelled. They come in white, tan, gray, blue and lavender grounds with neat figures, stripes and checks. We have made a special effort in these fabrics this season and our early showing is beautiful. We are cutting them each day. Be sure to see the new designs early. Our opening price 15, 25, 29 and 35 cents per yard.

THE NEW GINGHAMS

Every dry goods merchant has some kind of a line of new Ginghams. We implore you to see the new styles that comprise our greatest of all Gingham displays. Prices 10, 12 1-2, 15c per yard.

EARLY SHOWING OF WHITE GOODS

It will be an opportunity to learn what has met the approval of style originators if you see our new white goods display. The fabrics are beautiful beyond description. The lingerie waist of sheer white effects is as popular as ever. We are showing this week the new mercerized batistes, swisses and eyelet embroideried novelties. Many of the better styles will be bought early so do not miss this Fashion Show

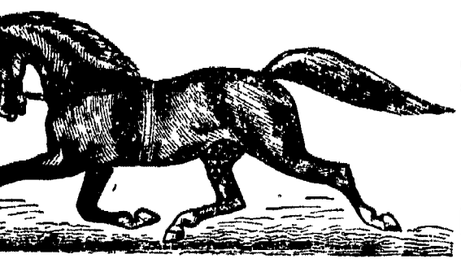

BEWILDERING ARRAY OF DELICATE EMBROIDERIES

That is not putting it too strong. We simply have never shown anything to compare with the dainty things that we have ready for your inspection this week—and buy them too—if you can not resist the temptation. There are beautiful nainsooks and swisses in all widths of edges and insertions, some fancy effects in elaborately embroideried panels for shirt-waists fronts.

OHIO NEWS

Sandusky, O., Feb. 11. — Secretary William H. Rheinhart of the National Winegrowers' association announced that an agreement had been reached with the American Winegrowers' association whereby certain features of the Fassett pure wine bill will be eliminated, and all obstacles in the way of the passage of that measure will thus be removed. The National Winegrowers' association has been fighting the Fassett bill for over a year past, on the alleged ground that if made a law it would discriminate against many of the wineries of the middle west to such an extent as to put some classes of them out of business

Firemen Assist Police.

Springfield, O., Feb. 11.—With 5,000 persons looking on, the police, with the aid of the fire department, raided a saloon in East Main street and with ladders scaled the walls of a five-story building and rounded up 31 men who had escaped from the place and taken refuge on the roof The police attempted to go up to the roof through the building, but found themselves barred by a steel trapdoor. The men on the roof refused to surrender, but when the fire department arrived with ladders the officers ascended with drawn revolvers and no further resistance was encountered The men were charged with loitering.

To Place Unfortunate Boy.

Columbus, O., Feb 11.—E P. Humphreys, sheriff of Logan county, filed a petition in the circuit court praying for a writ of mandamus compelling E. B Rorick, or his successor, superintendent of the Ohio institution for feeble-minded youth, to submit and receive Wilbur Reynolds at that institution. The boy is 7 years old, deaf, dumb and blind, and said to be an imbecile. The boy was at the institutes for the blind and for the deaf and dumb for trial, after which he was returned to his home at Bellefontaine, O., with recommendation that he be sent to the institution for feeble-minded.

Bride and Groom Overcome.

Ripley, O., Feb 11. — When Frank Lewis and his bride, guests of the Hotel Reinert, retired, they blew out the gas and both were rendered unconscious by the escaping fumes. A night clerk, noting the odor of gas, broke into their room and found them in a very serious condition. Dr. R. T. Prine was summoned and worked with the man and woman quite a while before they were out of danger.

Roy Sawyer returned to Columbus Saturday morning having come here to attend the funeral of his nephew Clyde Dickerson.

THE PEOPLE ALL

In Chorus Cried, Give Us Newbro's Herpicide.

This word of late has been in everyone's mouth, and many are wondering what the word signifies, though no one has yet been found, who will deny that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE does the work. Well, for the information of thousands of people who like to know all about a good thing, we would say that HERPICIDE means, a destroyer or killer of "Herpes," Now "Herpes" is the family name of a disease caused by various vegetable parasites. A similar microbe causes dandruff, itching scalp, and falling hair; this is the microbe that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE promptly destroys; after which the hair grows. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

PETER GROSS DIES FROM STROKE

Prominent German-American Citizen Passes Away

Peter Gross, who had he lived until Washington's birthday would have been 56 years old,, quietly passed away at his home on North Twelfth street at ten minutes past twelve Monday morning. On September 14 he suffered a stroke of paralysis and for the past seven weeks he has been bedfast. His head has also been affected and it has been thought that he was suffering with an abcess of the brain. Dr. McClain, assisted by Dr. Metzler, conducted an autopsy Monday morning to determine the nature of the disease.

Peter Gross was born in Germany and came to America when only two years old. He first settled in Philadelphia coming from there to Coshocton. He has been a coal miner nearly all his life. He is survived by a wife and six children and two brothers The funeral services will be conducted Tuesday at 12:30 o'clock by Rev. Irwin and Rev. Jaeger at the late home and interment made at Oak Ridge cemtery.

CHARMING WOMEN.

Nothing lends more to personal charm than a clear rosy skin and nothing is sure to free the skin from sallow spots, sallowness and the effects of chronic constipation as the Dainty Laxakola tonic tablets, 25 cents. C. E. Anderson

INSTIS ON YOUR RIGHTS

You have a right to clean, healthy meat and you can get it without paying a cent more than you pay now.

All you've got to do is to insist on Home-Dressed Beef, fed, fattended and killed in the good old fashioned way.

We kill cattle and hogs right here in our own town, so that we can vouch for absolute freshness.

We go farther and pick the best corn fed cattle from the farms of our county and have them brought to Coshocton and well rested before killing.

Look for the Acorn Brand of Lard, Hams and Bacon.

Your butcher and grocer should sell them, if he doesn't we'll tell you who does.
